Push Aside Doorkeeper, "Butt In" on Cabinet and Wait for President.

HE PROVES A "GOOD FELLER"

"But," Says Temple Abernathy, "He's Too Fat to Play Marbles. Like Teddy."

Washington, June 1 .- Two queerly dressed little figures approached the White House entrance shortly before 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. They brimmed somberos, beneath which peeped sturdy little features finted with sun bronze,
"Is Bill in?" the elder inquired of

"Bill who?"
"Why, Bill Taft, o' course. We've came ter see him."
"Sure the President's in," said the attendant, recovering from his surprise, "but you can't see him."
"Yer bet your life we kin see him."
"Yer see, I'm Louis Abermathy, an'this here's my brother, Ain't you, Temple?"

Temple?"

"Uh-huh," grunted the smaller boy, Senators! Nothin' Doin!

"But haven't you a letter from a Senator or Congressman or some one?"
asked the doorkeeper,
"We don't care 'bout Senators an'
such things. All we come fer is ter see Bill. But we gotter letter from Dad."
Louie fished an envelope that had once been white from the bosom of his outing shirt. "See, it says here
"To Hon, William Howard Taft."

"That'll be all right, then," said the White House Cerberus, reaching for the envelope. "You give me the letter and I'll give it to Secretary Carpenter.
Then you may be able to arrange an audience."

"Naw yer don't," said Louie firmly, "We'll give it ter him ourselves.
Come on, Temple," and the youthful Oklahomans pushed past the keeper of the gate and pattered down the hallway toward the executive offices.

"Maybe Bill's in here," said Louie, indicating a massive oaken door which stood before them. The youngsters pushed open the door and beheld a bevy of distinguished looking men who sat about a long table in earnest conversation.

"Kow Where Bill Ist"
"We're lookin' fer Bill," explained

"Know Where Bill Is?"
"We're lookin' fer Bill," explained
Loule, "Know where he is?"
"And who might you be, sonny?"
asked one of the men. We're th' Abernathys from Okla-na, sir."

"Were the Abernathy's from Oklahoma, sir."

A broad grin ran around the circle.

"Oh, I see; and you're looking for Bill, eh? Well, we're expecting Bill lere pretty soon."

"You see, they call us the Cabinet, not a piece of furniture, but a sort of board, you understand. Bill talks things over with us."

"I guess we'll jus' wait here fer Bill, if yer don't mind," said Louie, sinking into an easy chair.

"Sure," said the distinguished looking men politely. "Make yourselves at home."

ing men politely. "Make yourselves at home."

Fifteen minutes later, when "Bill" arrived, he found the members of his Cabinet grouped about the "Cowhoy Kids" and cagerly listening to the tale of their adventures on the road.

After gravely shaking hands with the little travelers, "Bill" perused the letter from Marshal Abernathy and then insisted that the boys repeat the story of their adventures to him.

"Bill" Hears Their Story.

"It was marvelous, boys, marvelous, I don't see how you did it," he remarked. "And young men (taking in their slender lines). There's another

CULEBRA SLIDE HAS BECOME VERY SERIOUS.

Washington, June 1.—The "Culebra slide," which has been the cause of much apprehension on the part of the constructing engineers on the isthmus, has become more serious than was at first feared. On the morning of April 18 twelve steam shovels were unable to resume work owling to the movements of the slides in the Culebra and Cucaracha cuts.

During the night of the 17th a mass of stone and mud estimated at 500,000 cubic yards broke away from the main mass of the Cucaracha silde and dropped rapidly into the bed of the canal, nilling the phoneor care for a distance of 900 feet and stoppins, only at the toe of the west bank. Many of the tracks were covered or torn away, delaying the work of removing the debris. At Culebra the damage done was comparatively small, and after a few hours' work the conditions were about normal.

A marked movement of the Culebra slide caused the removal of the conditions were about normal.

unhealthy humor the effect is shown by eruptions, bolls, pimples, or some more definitely marked skin disease such as Eczema, Acne, Tetter, etc. Humors get into the blood usually, because of a sluggish condition of those members whose duty it is to collect and carry off the waste and refuse matter of the system. This unhealthy matter, left in the system, sours and ferments and is soon absorbed into the circulation, filling the blood with an irritating humor. Remove these humors and the skin disease can not exist, because its very cause is then destroyed. S. S. S. cures all humors of the blood because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It cleanses the blood of every particle of unhealthy matter, enriches the circulation and causes it to supply healthful nourishment to all skin tissues. Then the skin becomes soft and clear. Local applications can not cure, they can only soothe by temporarily reducing the in ammation, but the cause remains in the circulation and the eruption will be no nearer well when the ex-
